- 1. What aspect of your AAWC membership do you value the most?
Education and access to research.
- 2. Did a specific person, circumstance, or goal inspire you to pursue your current profession?
I had two great CWOCN mentors who introduced me to wound care and gave me the basis of thought to help me grow and apply knowledge across all care settings. Without them, I would have never entered into finding wound care as one of my greatest passions.
- 3. What is one thing about working in wound care that you wish more people understood?
Treating the complete patient versus just the wound.
- 4. What are five adjectives that describe your personality?
Eccentric, diligent, observant, quick-witted, humorous.
- 5. What is your biggest personal and/or professional accomplishment to date?
Being able to teach and present wound care topics/techniques across the country and truly help new residents/ practitioners accomplish their own patient healing goals.
