

Marta Ostler, PT, CWS, CLT

Marta Ostler is the past Manager of Northeast Wyoming Wound Care in Sheridan Wyoming, a department of Sheridan Memorial Hospital, where she has been for the past 23 years. Owner of One Hole Too Many LLC. Marta is a Physical Therapist, Certified Wound Specialist, and Certified Lymphatic Therapist. She received her bachelor's of science in physical therapy in 1993 from Mount St Mary's university in Los Angeles, CA, Certified Wound Care Specialist in 2003, and Certified Lymphatic Therapist in 2005. Marta specializes in Wound care and chronic wound management as well as lymphedema treatment and management. Marta is a member of the American Academy of Wound Management, the American Professional Wound Care Association., the American Physical Therapy Association and the American Board of Wound Healing. She also serves on the Board for the American Board of Wound Healing and the Association for the Advancement of Wound Care.